

About DriveTime

DriveTime is a company that specializes in selling high quality used cars to those with poor credit history. Everyone has different reasons for poor credit, and most of the time it comes from events in your life that you weren't able to control. We feel that people should be given the chance to better their future, instead of worrying about the past, which is exactly why DriveTime handles 99% of all of our own financing!

DriveTime knows that used cars tend to make people feel skeptical and uneasy because they do not know the history of the vehicle. The 53-point inspection is performed on every car and truck before they even arrive at one of our Austin stores. Our warranty is one of the best in the industry and comes standard with every purchase.
